It was in Barcelona, a few years (and what now seems another lifetime) ago that I came across a book that stopped me short. It was a picture book on Agatha Christie, part of the Little People, BIG DREAMS children’s biography series by Isabel Sánchez Vegara. I was visiting the Museum of the City of Barcelona, where you can walk on glass panels above the streets of the original Roman city of Barca, when I stepped into the museum’s bookstore—something I love to do while traveling in the ...

Little People, BIG DREAMS - Agatha Christie

A simple biographical picture book intro to mystery writer Agatha Christie. This was ok but I wanted a little more. To build the mood for Agatha’s biography, the illustrator chose to do the illustrations in just black and white with some red highlights. I liked that choice, but I'm not a huge fan of the style of illustration used.
