Creation Regained Biblical Basics For

Albert Wolters' classic is an antidote to much evangelical theology that suggests that heaven, and not earth, is our home. Wolters' biblical exegesis make it clear that Creation is not ultimately doomed to burn up in fire and brimstone; rather, it will be refined and restored to its original glory to be a home for humankind.

Creation Regained: Biblical Basics for a Reformational Worldview (Eerdmans) was originally written in 1985 by Al Wolters, and then re-released twenty years later, with an afterword by Michael Goheen. Wolters defines worldview as "the comprehensive framework of one's basic beliefs about things," a definition he then breaks down bit by bit (I won't spell it out here, but each word is carefully chosen).
