.. Christine Byl

So I connected with Christine Byl's first book, Dirt Work: An Education in the Woods. Armed with an English literature and philosophy degree, Byl finds herself after college seeking diversion in Glacier National Park where she becomes a "traiidog," a laborer who builds, maintains, and designs trails.

Praise For Dirt Work: An Education in the Woods... “[It] blends beauty and crudeness, grit and grace... With language that is lyrical despite the earthiness of its subject, Byl turns the words of work into found poetry (“brake on, choke on, pull, pull, fire”), offering a bridge
