Book 1: Heirs of the Force Heirs of the Force is about the adventures of Jacen Solo and Jaina Solo during their time at the Jedi Praxeum . After spending a month of training to become Jedi Knights at Luke Skywalker's Jedi academy, Jacen and Jaina's father Han Solo arrives on Yavin 4 with gifts for the twins and a new Jedi trainee — Chewbacca's nephew, Lowbacca.

Young Jedi Knights - Wikipedia

Heirs of the Force, written by Kevin J. Anderson and Rebecca Moesta, was published in 1995 by Boulevard Books.. Young Jedi Knights was one of my favorite series when I was little. It's YA (bordering on middle grade, I think), and follows Leia and Han's children, Jaina and Jacen, as they begin their training as Jedi Knights.

Jacen hissed with fear, and his sister's entire body clenched. He had used his own talents with the Force to confront many strange animals out in the jungle, but never anything as powerful as this monster, never such a boiling mass of anger and confusion. But Luke stepped right up to the shaggy, angry thing, within touching distance.

Heirs of the Force the introductory novella to this 14 book long series is as mundane, contrived, and poorly thought out as the rest of the Young Jedi Knights series. It may be required reading, seeing as how it sets up many of the main characters in the New Jedi Order series, but that doesnt make these stories entertaining.

Heirs Of The Force Pdf - Lulu Book Review

He used the Force when he needed to, raising his body up, catching himself when his feet slipped. He would have preferred to show off his physical prowess, especially with Tenel Ka watching. At last he pulled his wiry body to the top of the Great Temple, squirming out the windowsill to stand on the broad rough-hewn platform left by the ancient builders.
