Written while under the influence of LSD, 'It's All Too Much' was the second song by George Harrison to feature on the Yellow Submarine soundtrack. 'It's All Too Much' was written in a childlike manner from realizations that appeared during and after some LSD experiences and which were later confirmed in

It's all too much for me, but it's not too much for God. I walk back upstairs and sit in my favorite chair, open my journal and turn the pages of my Bible toward the back where I find Jesus waiting for me, inviting me to come and stay with Him. "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest."
