THE GIRLS HE ADORED [2001] By Jonathan Nasaw My Review Four Stars* I just finished reading the book that most readers would agree is the crown jewel amidst this author's colorful and captivating arsenal of serial killer thrillers featuring veteran FBI Agent E.L. Pender. It is certainly his most well known novel of psychological suspense, and it did foster a host of devotees who heaped lavish praise on this original and intriguing journey into the mind of a most definitely novel serial killer.
